Introduction

Have you ever wondered why you keep stumbling upon repeating number sequences like 111, 555, or 777... EVERYWHERE? For instance, eating lunch at 1.11 p.m., then buying a bread for $1.11, then completing your workout in 1 hour and 11 minutes. These patterns are NO coincidence. In fact, these sequential repetitions are messages from your Angels! And it is beyond mere coincidence. In fact, it is the angels trying to communicate with us. They want the best for us and wants to make you feel seen and heard. They want to get your attention by using numbers that have significant meaning. While repeating sequences of the same digit are most obvious, and thus more likely to catch a person's attention, some people may see a birthdate, a lucky number, or other meaningful digits again and again.

In this book, you will learn and better understand the basics of angel numbers, its significance and how to discern them to boost the quality of your daily life.

What are Angel Numbers?

Angel numbers are numerical values that are used to convey special messages and guidance from spiritual authorities to humans on earth. As they are unable to show themselves in our material world, angels will use angel number sequences as one of the ways to get your attention and pass their message to you. Hence, that is why you may see a specific number over and over sometimes—it's a sign, not a coincidence.

An angel number are divine messages, coded instructions or information sent to humans by angels, meant to guide us, help us find some sense of balance, and steer us to leading a better life on earth. They usually appear everywhere with noticeable frequency at certain times in our lives when we are in dire need of spiritual guidance, reminder, and sometimes even money. It could occur at ANY time—be it looking at clocks, noticing some license plate numbers, looking at your receipts or the change to your dinner bill.

Most importantly, the messages are meant as encouragement or guidance, a warning, a reminder, or a promise and these number meanings depend on your situation in life. Sometimes, it could be a sign that can inspire life-changing ideas, creative words, and everything in between.

Why Do I Keep Seeing Number Sequences?

Number sequences combine the vibration and energy of individual digits to produce a unique sign that is sent to humans to encourage, warn, reaffirm, or restore a sense of balance. The increase in frequency in seeing repeating number sequences shows the urgency in which the angels are trying to deliver you a special correspondence; you ought to take it seriously.

Your ability to discover and decode communication from the angels could go a long way in helping you live a better life on earth, nurture helpful thoughts, amass greater wealth, become more successful, improve your health, as well as increase and maintain positive energy throughout your journey. Take note that when such signs appear in your life, change is coming your way be it in your career, love life, or family life.

An angelic sequence or number will stop appearing to you when you have deciphered the coded instructions, or when you've ignored it for too long. If you ignore the call, the chances of getting it back are slim and you may lose out on whatever the divine masters are trying to tell you through that number.

Angel Numbers & Your Name

Every number has its own associated luck. Therefore, by knowing your number to your name, you will be able to pinpoint your character traits and/or your destiny/fate.

In this section, you will see a summary of all the traits associated with all the numbers, from where you can judge and know which numbers are luckier than others. You will also see how your angel is communicating with you through your pre-destined name.

You will see both the positive and negative qualities of each so that you can make an informed judgment.

Angel Numbers & Their Meanings

Single-digit numbers carry specific meanings and information. They are referred to as the foundation numbers which occupy an important place in numerology. Individually, they have unique meanings and significance that work to influence people and world events. They can also be sent by the angels to people as messages to reveal a particular mystery about their lives.

Every angelic number is made up of one or more of the foundation single digits. These numbers are 0, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, and 9. These digits are stronger when they are combined in sequences, but their unique meanings allow us to properly decode the message in angel numbers.

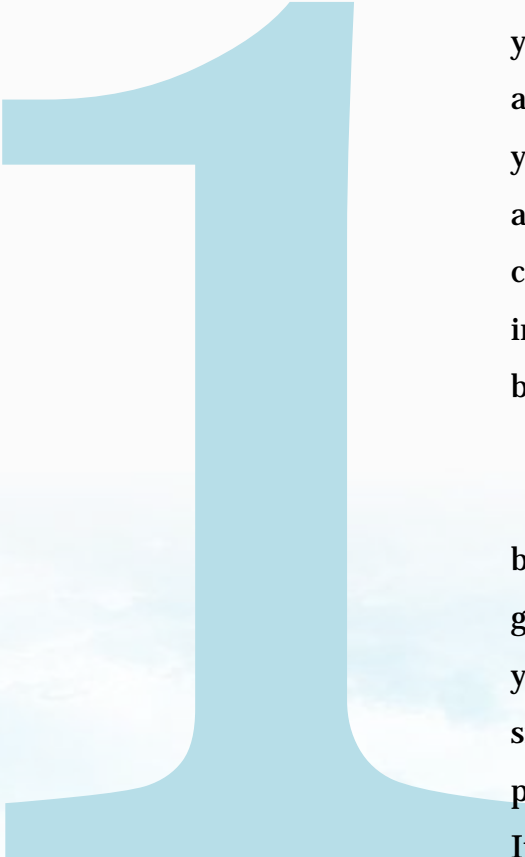

High Energy Vibrations & Positivity

Angel number 1 is the first number, and it resonates with new beginnings, will power, independence, leadership, self-reliance, and inner strength. This number reverberates with positive attributes like happiness, fulfillment, inspiration, optimism, and creating your own reality.

When your angel shows you angel number 1, they want you to look at things differently with a more optimistic approach. Don't let fear or negativity control you because what you think will manifest into reality—keep only positive thoughts and work towards your goals without inhibitions.

Wealth / Success

When your angel shows you angel number 1, they want you to look at things differently with a more optimistic approach. Don't let fear or negativity control you because what you think will manifest into reality—keep only positive thoughts and work towards your goals without inhibitions to unlock certain opportunities. You will also need to become more independent and proactively take up more challenging tasks because new beginnings await you.

When you see number 1, it is also a reminder that you're a blessed soul with the divinity within you. You may need to let go of all those things that are holding you back from reaching your complete potential. Most importantly, seeing number 1 signifies that the angels want you to realize your spiritual potential and do all the great things that you were born to do. It's time for you to start your spiritual journey with compassion, empathy, and positivity.

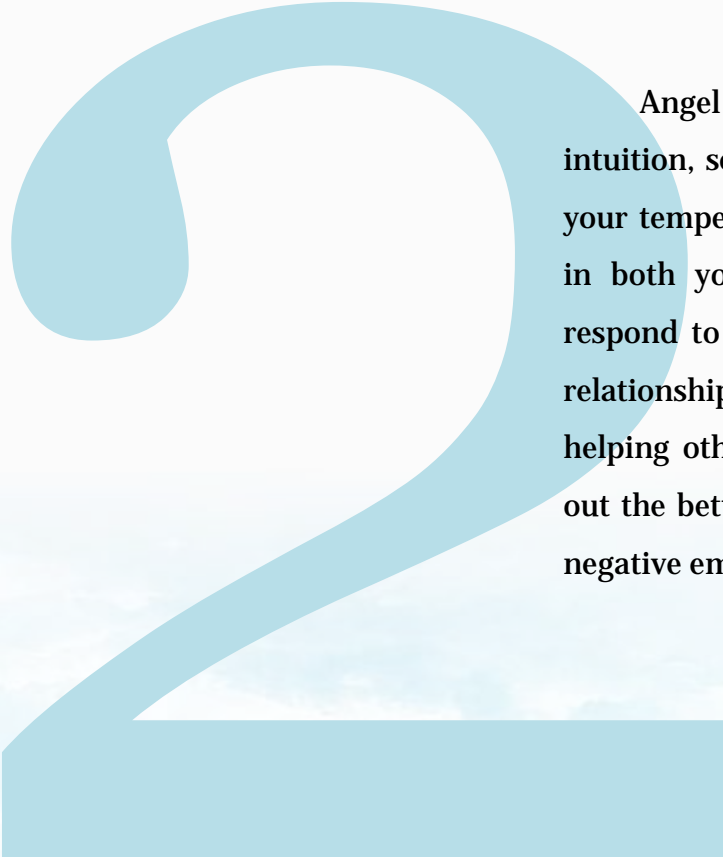

Love

The symbolism of angel number 1 means new beginnings for your love life. Whether you're in a relationship or not, this number means a new heightened sense of passionate love awaits you, but which may be lost forever if you don't act on it.

For singles, your secret desires to be swept off by your true love are about to be fulfilled. your angel is signaling you that your soulmate is among the many people around you and you should search for that person with an open heart and positive mindset. Usually, that person is right in front of you and you can tell if you pay close attention to these messages from your angels.

For committed people, seeing angel number 1 means you're going to enter a new phase in your marriage with the addition of a new member into your life. It could be a child on the way or a new pet. This number is also a sign that you need to release all the negativity that you've been carrying from the past to soon realize that great things happen when you're determined. Start looking at your love life with a different perspective and figure out what's going right/wrong.

Relationships, Faith, and Trust

Angel number 2 resonates with diplomacy, harmony, intuition, service, receptivity, and love. You need to control your temper and choose the diplomatic and peaceful route in both your professional and personal lives. How you respond to a situation will determine your course in your relationships in life and partnerships at work. In fact, start helping others and serve mankind because that will bring out the better person in you and will help get rid of all the negative emotions

Seeing number 2 is a strong call to pursue your life purpose and aim towards completing your soul mission. Your angel is asking you to be more patient and receptive because some good things are on their way, but they will need your patience and attention.

The angel number 2 is unlike many other angel numbers as it only sends good wishes. It always comes bearing good news and signals that a brighter and happier future awaits you. By doing some changes into your life, you will be able to reap the maximum benefit of the opportunities coming your way. When you feel overwhelmed and lose control over your emotions, number 2 reminds you to never give up, no matter how challenging the situations may seem.

If you continue working hard and receive guidance from your guardian angel consistently, all the good things will keep happening again and again and you'll be able to balance and enjoy your life.

Love

Angel number 2 is the number of love and trust which are both crucial for any relationship or a partnership. Whenever your guardian angel shows you angel number 2, they are asking you to love yourself first and offer your love to everyone around you.

If you love someone and are afraid to express your feelings to them, your angels are boosting your spirit and encouraging you to believe in yourself and gain some self-confidence. Take control over your life and be the best version of yourself with positive thoughts. Only if you love yourself will others be able to love you.

If you are already married or committed and are often at each other's loggerheads, your angels want you to work on getting rid of your temper and bringing in more peace and harmony into your life. You should not search for a way out but instead tell your partner what it is like to live with so much negative energy and work things out. You will be amazed at how beautiful your life could be just by communicating with each other. Instead of making a comment on what your partner does, express your feelings on how that affects you without mocking them.

Youthful and Inspirational

Angel number 3 is characterized by youthful energy that invigorates and inspires the person who possesses it. This number is evident in some celebrities who have been designated this fate: Jamie Foxx, Snoop Dogg, Celine Dion, and Jackie Chan.

The top 3 attributes include—

Charm: You very popular, as they work well with people of other life path numbers. You know the right thing to say, and the right people to say it to.

Creativity: You are always creative, no matter what platforms you are given; you just shine!

Communication: You have great communication skills and are much better at getting their point across, whether it's in their art or their general life, and you bring joy to people around you.

Wealth / Success

You often achieve success and have great careers but realize there's more to life than money, so the time balance between their work life and their leisure life is split in favor of leisure.

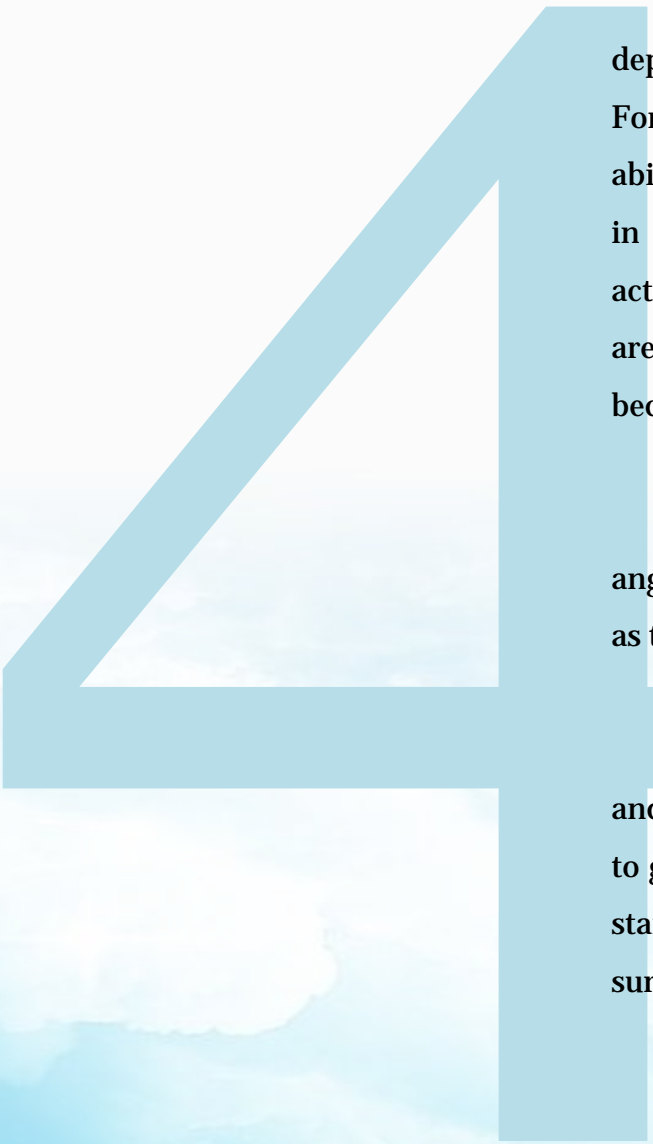

Seeing number 3 signifies the provision of opportunities and seeks to help you achieve your dreams, providing a calming nature and informing you that your goals will be reached, all in due time. However, you must remain patient, for nothing is guaranteed and all must be worked towards. Waiting is essential, as impatience can cause your guardian angel to prolong the time until your goals come to fruition. The good thing is, if you see angel number 3 appearing more often, it can only mean that you're getting closer. Lastly, resilience is key; life can be troublesome, but luck will eventually appear under the guidance of your guardian angel.

Love

Angel number 3 is one of the most interesting, romantic number as people under its influence produce love for both themselves and their partner. You're often very talkative and therefore attractive, and may seem outgoing to the general public, but anyone who gets close to you will see another, less confident side. You will need a matching partner to support and help them progress and become the best person they can be. If you keep seeing 3, it means that you should be with someone with this guardian angel number.

For committed people, if you have a partner who has angel number 3, they will provide endless amounts of affection and joy in your relationship. In addition, if both of you with angel number 3 manage to fall in love, it will probably last forever as you're destined to be together and will never get bored with each other. It can sometimes be an instance of "right person, wrong time" but the stars will always align, and it will work out.

Stability, Order and Calmness

Angel number 4 is a controversial one where it depends on which culture you are immersing yourself in. For the group of positive thinkers, this number comes the ability to make tough situations simple and you will be great in handling different challenges in your day-to-day activities. This is particularly evident in arguments as you are very strong and outspoken and will most likely win because of the way you argue.

When you see number 4 often, it is a sign that your angel will help move you forward since it has strong energy as they are hard at work on your behalf.

The focus of this symbolic number is about stability and the grounded nature of life and all things. You will need to go back to your roots whenever you see this number as it stands for endurance and persistence, which your angels is sure to be beside you and help you with.

Wealth / Success

Seeing angel number 4 is a sign that you are meant for greatness the moment you follow a certain direction to achieve your goals in life. The easiest way to achieve that is to be open to receiving your guardian angel's guidance let them show you how to do it. They want to give you encouragement and more inner strength.

You may want to start developing your skills as this number may appear to you to tell you that you should take the challenging road to achieve your goals instead of the easy way out. Although it might seem scary, realize that your guardian angel wouldn't show you this number and encourage you to follow it if it wasn't going to bring success.

This angel number emphasizes the importance of time management and proper handling of other aspects of your life to improve productivity. You may also need to start exercising patience in order to go in the right direction.

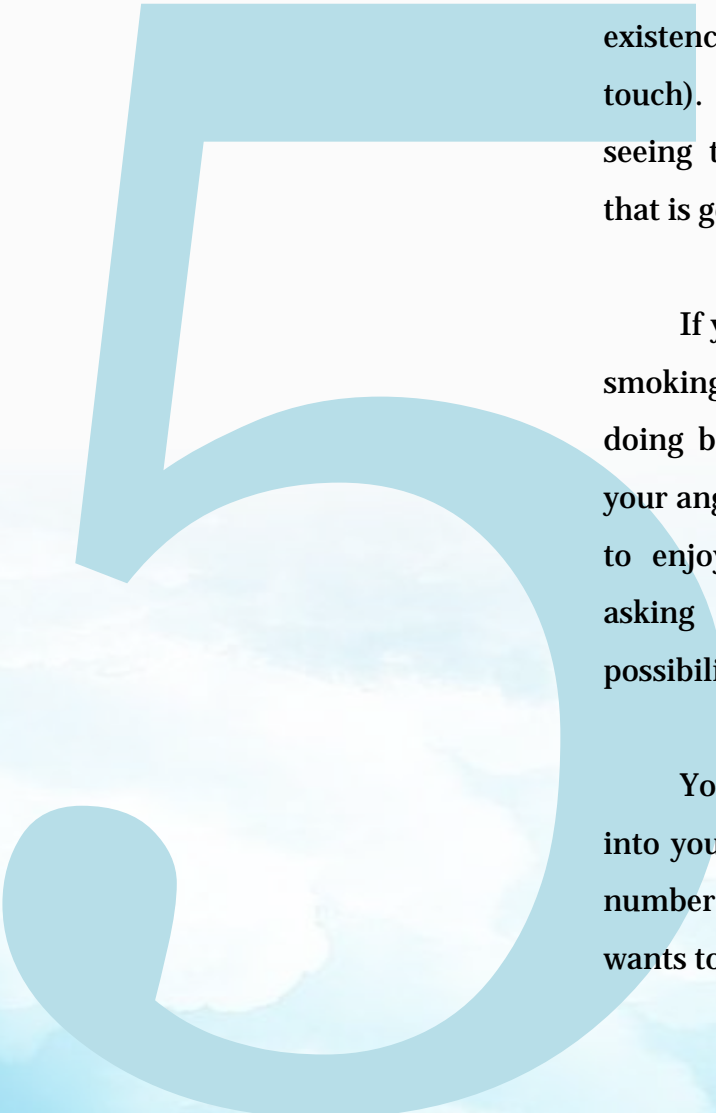

Love

Whenever you see number 4, you should know that your guardian angel is offering you love. Being loved means you should also be able to love others.

In fact, it could mean that your guardian angel is telling you to care for those closest to you more. That way, you live a more harmonious life with them.

Your relationships will, therefore, be more stable and your guardian angel will be able to help you overcome any temptation that threatens it, such as cheating.

Huge Changes Incoming

Angel number 5 itself is an important number for our existence (i.e. 5 senses—smell, hearing, sight, taste, and touch). Being associated with our sensual experiences, seeing this number everywhere signifies a major change that is going to happen in your life or is already happening.

If you are thinking too much or being too emotional or smoking/drinking too much or whatever it is that you are doing beyond a limit, angel number 5 is a warning from your angels to stop doing it. If you have been living your life to enjoy materialistic comforts, your guardian angel is asking you to see a world beyond which is full of possibilities and opportunities.

You have to be more prepared for the changes coming into your life and turn them into positive ones. Seeing this number is a reply to your prayers from the universe that wants to help you reach your goals.

Wealth / Success

Number 5 is a message from your guardian angel that positive opportunities are right up the alley and they will change your life for the better. For you to grab those opportunities, angels are reminding you to focus on your health first and adopt some healthy lifestyle changes to improve your health physically, emotionally, and mentally.

If you have been highly dependent on someone or something, angel number 5 is a wake-up call from your guardian angel who is reminding you to be more independent and individualistic. Only with courage and versatility you would be able to bring these changes to your life to become the success you want to be.

With patience and a moment's pause before action, you'll start to discover far more successes coming your way.

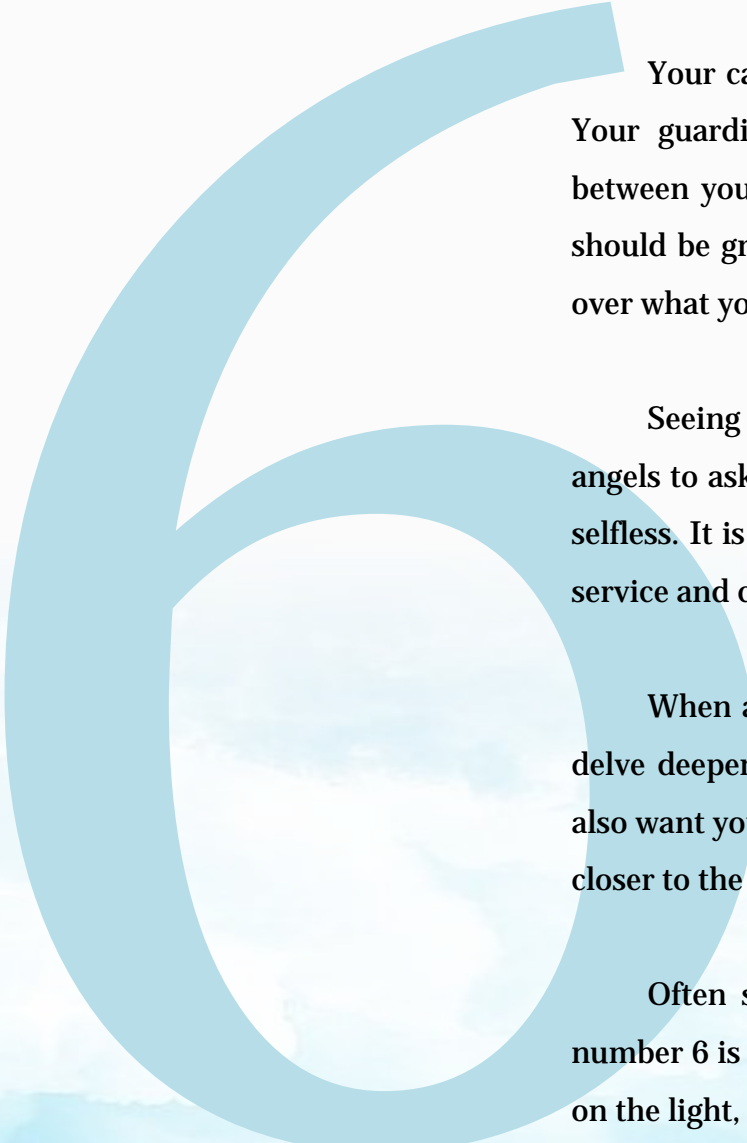

Love

It is believed that angel number 5 represents love and marriage. This number is related to loyalty and stability in relationships. Loyalty is of the main importance for you and you will certainly never cheat on your emotional partner. That's why we can say that your partner is the lucky one. Of course, you expect from your partner to be as loyal as you are.

When you are guided by angel number 5, your angels will encourage you to create strong relationship with one person. It is much better than having too much relationships that are not permanent.

When it comes to love, we have also to mention the love that your angels bring into your life. You should never forget that you are a loved person, so let this love lead you through your life. When you show your love to the world, then many opportunities will appear by your side.

You Need A Balance!

Your call for help is heard when you see this number! Your guardian angels want you to have a balanced life between your material aspirations and spiritual goals. You should be grateful for all that you have and quit pondering over what you don't.

Seeing the number 6 is a sign from your guardian angels to ask you to extend unconditional love and be more selfless. It is often a pointer for you to start living the life of service and charity.

When angels show you this number, they want you to delve deeper into connecting with your spiritual self. They also want you to make some changes in life that help you get closer to the divine path.

Often seen during the darkest of times in our lives, number 6 is a good sign as it asserts the importance to focus on the light, how much ever bleak it may seem.

Wealth / Success

Number 6 is a sign that good things could happen if you live a positive life with honesty and integrity. If you have been taking your materialistic life too seriously, you need to pause and work towards attaining a balance. You shouldn't build an extravagant life with everything that you need but feel empty inside since you don't recognize your inner-self anymore.

The symbolism of angel number 6 is that your journey is half complete. You are halfway through your goals and you must not stop or get distracted before you reach them. There could be many hurdles in your life, but you should try never to get disheartened.

To achieve your goals, you will first need to find that one caring person who is understanding enough to stand by your side and provide you with the right kind of support.

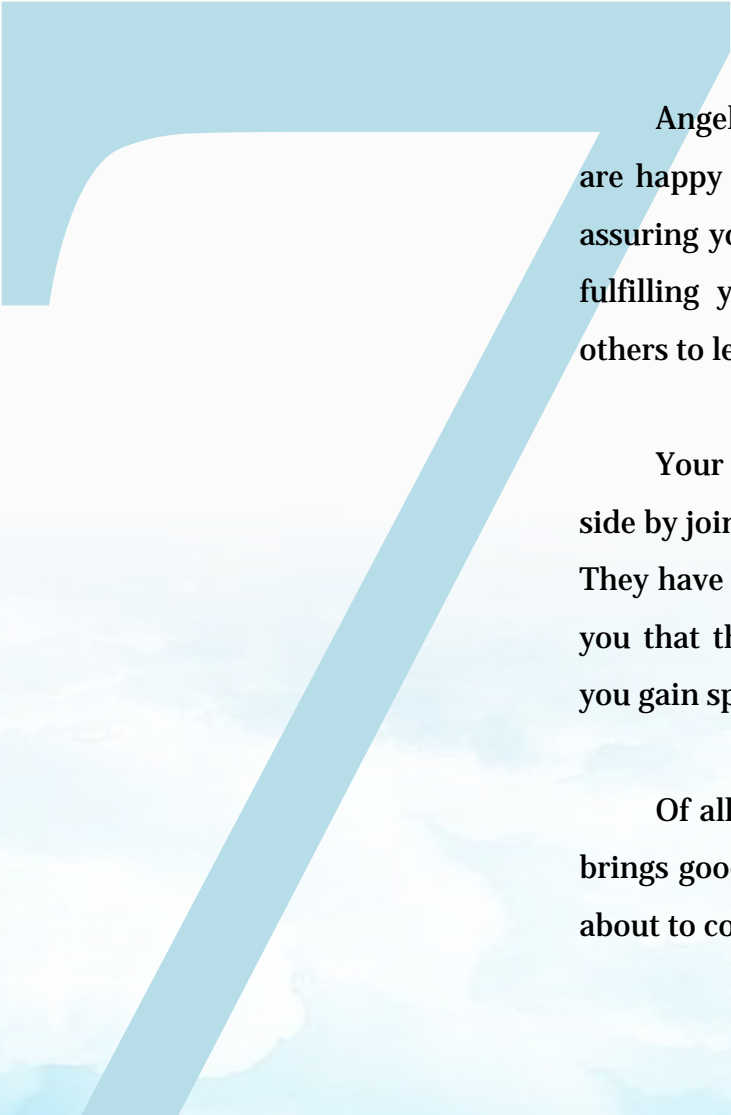

Love

Number 6 is a reminder from your guardian angel that you have been too distracted in your life and you must focus on other important aspects like your family and your other personal relationships. Perhaps there is some aspect at home that you must immediately address. A retrospection of how you could do better in things related to you and your loved ones could be a good start. The moment you pick your friends or career over family, life becomes complicated and your angels don't want you to mess up that balance.

If you are single and you often see angel number 6, it could be an indication of your own desire to build a family. Dreaming of angel number 6 could mean that you are soon about to meet the love of your life.

If you are married, then it would mean that soon your family will need your time and attention as something major is going to come up.

Spiritual Awakening & Enlightenment

Angel number 7 signifies praise from your angels who are happy with what you have done with your life and are assuring you that you are on the right path. You have been fulfilling your life's purpose and setting an example for others to lead their lives as passionately as you do.

Your angels want you to get closer to your spiritual side by joining a profession that will enrich your spirituality. They have seen what your heart truly desires and are telling you that the closer you get to spiritual practice, the faster you gain spiritual awakening.

Of all the angel numbers, it's the angel number 7 that brings good luck and promises new positive things that are about to come your way.

Wealth / Success

The secret meaning behind the angels showing you number 7 could be that if you are going through a rough phase in life, it isn't permanent, and they want you to remember that it's just a passing cloud. With persistence and inner strength, you should be able to overcome any obstacles.

It's their way of saying not to be too hard on yourself or worry too much about the problems in your life. Instead, focus on the potential of doing something larger than your life for humanity.

Rough times will pass, and positive changes will soon see the light of the day. As you continue healing others, your own wounds will heal as well, leading you to greater opportunities.

Through angel number 7, your angels are asking you not to take anything at face value and instead understand the underlying reality. They're asking you not to fall for the illusions but understand the deeper meaning of everything in your life.

Love

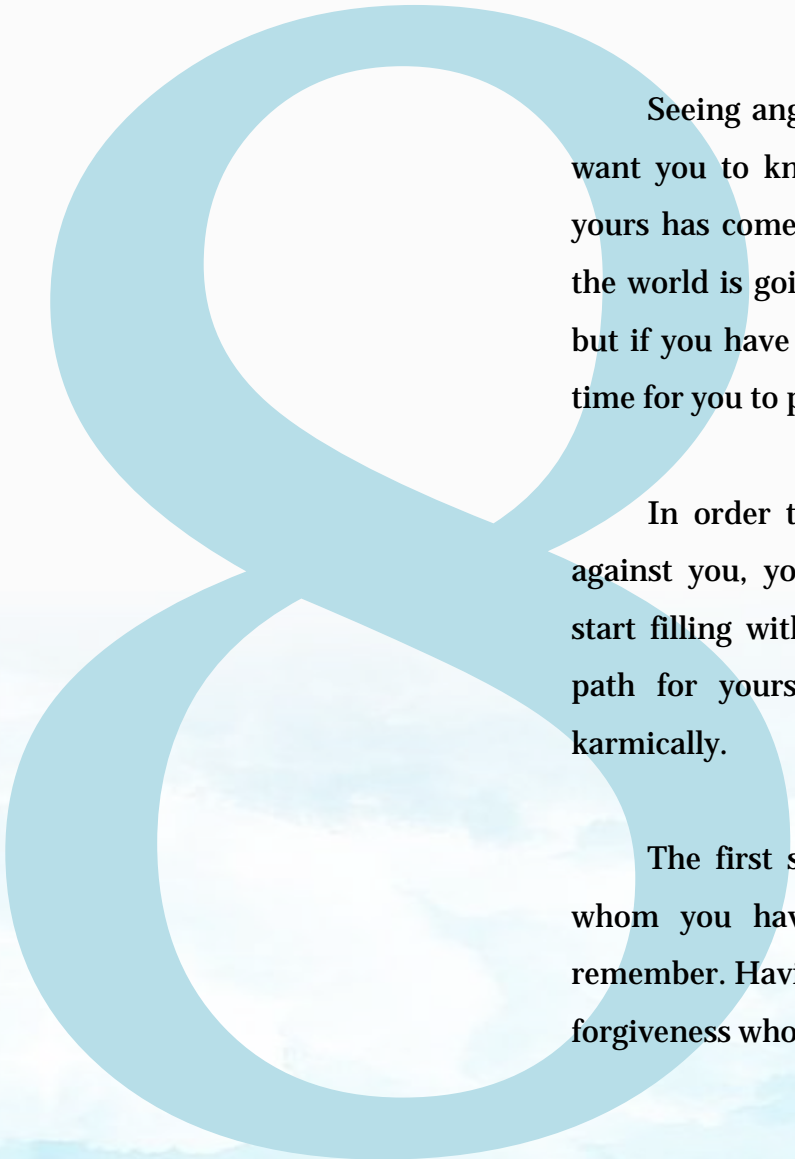

Your angels are trying to tell you that your emotions are leading to conflicts in your relationships and you really need to tone them down. They're acknowledging the troubles in your love life and are offering you their help.

If you're someone who hides emotions and feelings to avoid conflicts, this is a reminder from your angels to talk to your partner and let them know how you feel. If you don't communicate well, you could burst soon with emotions overwhelming you and will eventually dent your relationship for a long time.

If you're someone who is afraid of getting hurt and so have been avoiding relationships or taking a friendship to the next level, your angels are urging you to open your heart and love your partner with all your heart.

If you're single and are looking to settle down, angel number 7 is a message from your angels that you need to work on yourself first. Relationships and commitment take time and efforts and you should be prepared to invest all your heart in them before you even consider looking for a partner.

Supreme Karma

Seeing angel number 8 often, that means your angels want you to know that the time for karma in this life of yours has come. If you did good things in your lives, then the world is going to shower you with love and abundance but if you have been hurtful and mean towards others, it's time for you to pay for your sins.

In order to have the number work for you and not against you, you need to empty your karmic bucket and start filling with only good deeds. Going forward, build a path for yourself that will only make your life better karmically.

The first step is to make things right with everyone whom you have hurt in your life for as long as you remember. Having said that, it's also important to seek their forgiveness whole-heartedly and not just for the sake of it.

Wealth / Success

Angel number 8 is an encouraging number from your angels who are proud of your success and achievements. It's time for you to work hard using your full potential and remain optimistic because abundance is on its way. They will attempt to keep you grounded so that you are prepared in life when abundance finally comes to you.

If you see this number at work and if you have been working hard lately helping your colleagues at the same time, it could mean that your effort has been recognized and you will soon be rewarded in abundance. But, if you have been sabotaging others' careers to move up the ladder, angel number 8 is a warning from your angels that you will soon pay up for the bad karma that you've accumulated.

Love

Angel number 8 is also related to emotions and if your angels are showing you this number, that means they want you to keep your emotions in check. Because of your success and ambitious nature, many people will admire you and would want to be with you. However, if you focus on only the reward that a good relationship gets, you will thus miss out on preparing yourself with the infinite adjustments that you'll have to make.

It will be good if you could take a day off, spend some time with yourself, and understand if you have what it takes to make your love life last before you initiate one.

If you're a timid person who cannot express your feelings well, then angel number 8 is a reminder to feel more confident of yourself and believe in yourself. You need to like yourself first for others to like you.

Whether it is your relationships at work or family or friends, you need to make things right by telling them how you feel. You will be surprised at what clear communication can do for your broken relationships!

Embrace Your Humanitarian Side

Angel number 9 represents public relations, sensitivity, responsibilities, self-sacrifice, and spiritual enlightenment. Whenever you see this number, it is a sign that your angel is giving you the assurance that you are being guarded. They are sending you universal love which is much needed during your tough times.

Angel number 9 is considered sacred and stands for competition and fulfillment, and is a symbol of great leadership, wisdom, knowledge as well as of humanity and heaven.

Sometimes, angel numbers appear in our dreams, and when number 9 appears, there could be some hidden messages. Your angels want you to pause for a moment and look at where your life's path is headed. Often, you get so busy in our lives that you lose track of our contributions in the spiritual realm.

Wealth / Success

Angel number 9 represents initiation and wisdom. With this number, you could either end up as strong leaders who change the world or as victims of mental depression and loss of interest in living life to its truest potential. However, if you can instead offer your service to humanity and continue your spiritual energy with the help of people who love you, the meaning of this number could only be positive, and only good things will happen to you.

Once you realize that you cannot change the world, you will naturally understand the secret behind a happier life and start looking for a job that is more soul-enriching. The first step is always the most difficult but if you manage to take that, you begin the end of your search for happiness because you have become a person that you yourself can connect with. Remember, a positive mind always paves the way to becoming a better person.

Love

Angel number 9 is a sign of unconditional and universal love and faith. It means that you must be ready to give and to receive love. You should never forget that your angels have enormous love for you, so they are coming to help you and to make your life better.

When it comes to the characteristics of people guided by number 9, we have to say that they are not very romantic in their love lives. These people usually hide their emotions, and they may be too demanding. There is always a certain distance with these people, even though they may be in a relationship for years.

People with number 9 are usually attractive, but they are not able to say their wishes, so they feel often misunderstood.

Seeing Double-Digit Angel Numbers

Double digit Angel Numbers can be some of the most difficult to spot. They can be some of the most potent messages in their simplicity and intensity.

Double digit numbers, such as the number 35, will combine two powerful messages to give you strong and direct guidance. In this case, the number 35 combines the importance of communication (3) and the importance of maintaining your independence and taking responsibility for your life (5). This suggests that you need to start articulating what you need in order to take control of your life and move it in a positive direction.

Double digit Angel Numbers may also present repeating digits, such as 88. This repetition adds urgency to the message of the single digit 8. The number 8 indicates negative forces that are pushing our lives off course. The number 88 usually calls our attention to such a negative force in order to help us respond to them.

Lastly, angels may also use double digit sequences to call to our attention to one of the three Master Numbers, 11, 22 and 33. These numbers are the most potent numbers that exist. Master Numbers generally appear when we are at the cusp of a great transformation. They call on us to act in order to take advantage of an important moment.

Seeing Triple-Digit Angel Numbers

Triple-digit number sequences work by combining three numbers to produce a unique message. When three different numbers appear and work together, it is because their vibrations have a role to play in the meaning of the angelic number sequence.

Sometimes, the three numbers can appear as the same number. In such combinations, the number is an urgent call from the Universe and the angels and should be quickly deciphered and its instructions followed religiously to keep things under control after a big change.

The ones who heed these clues and patterns from the divine realm are the ones who often reap blessings beyond imagination and realize the truth of their lives.

Conclusion

Angel numbers are often godsend and their meanings go beyond just being a number. Numbers have their own meaning, and if you are open-minded and you let the angels guide you, a lot of good things could happen.

Thank those angels that are guarding you and let them send their messages in the form of these numbers. Understand their meaning, dig deeper, and transform yourself into someone more enriched and spiritual!
